DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 7/20/2006 has been entered.

Pursuant to amendment, claims 3 – 7 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1 – 5 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sunshine in combination with Kreutner for reasons of record and those discussed below. In addition, new claim 7 is now included in this rejection.

Applicants' arguments are responded to below.

Claim 6 remains rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sunshine in view of Kreutner and in further view of Guy, for reasons of record and those discussed below.

Response to Arguments

Applicants' arguments have been fully considered, but are not persuasive.

Art Unit: 1615

Applicants' arguments do not address the specific features of the claims which Applicants believe distinguish over the prior art; instead, Applicants merely provide a summary of the invention and an explanation as to why Applicants believe that efletirizine is not comparable to other antihistamines, and further explains the complexities of the disclosed and claimed subject matter. In response, it is noted that Kreutner specifically claims the use of efletirizine. Thus, it cannot be said that the art does not suggest such use. With regard to the complexities of the claimed subject matter, these details are only relevant in so far as they distinguish over the prior art. As Applicant has not shown that any of the limitations of the claims distinguish over the teachings of the art, the claims remain properly rejected.
